Class History

September, 1941, many tearful mothers watched their "babies" leave for their first day of school. Some left for Speers Street or Boundary Street, others for Mollohon or West End School, but each thinking he was entering the best institution. As we reached our respective schools, a glance up the steps showed us that there was a long climb ahead.

During these glorious five years of grammar school, we learned a lot which was not found in the books that we carried in our treasured, new book-satchels.

Our happy clan became really united in 1947 when our Junior High days began. Again we gazed up the stairs, there still seemed like such a long journey ahead, but we could look back and see a few steps behind us. My how grown-up we must have been! We were changing classes and having exams. A stroke of Romeo and Juliet began to blossom as the treasured notes were passed to one's favorite girl. Just think, a wedding and we were only in Junior High. Oh, it was a Tom Thumb wedding. Gloria Hawkins and Jimmy Haltiwanger won the citizenship medals and Gloria and Bill Tedford won the scholarship medals.

Surely, now we must be matured. It was now 1949 and we were entering Newberry High School. Still more steps, and as we looked towards the top, the juniors and seniors resembled giants. It was so embarrassing to sit down too soon in chapel and to get lost in the halls. After becoming adjusted, we elected Carol Ann Baxter as our class president and Helen Stutts as class beauty.

Next came the step labeled "freshmen". Now we felt more at home as we laughed at the poor sub-freshmen. That year we elected Gloria Hawkins as our capable class president. Again Helen was our favorite class beauty. We became interested in school activities. Norma and Betty Lee became major-ettes, and a lot of boys and girls began to participate in sports and club activities. We attended our first big formal at the Community Hall, Christmas. Weren't we something? Going to a formal with dates and in a car (without parents).

The next bright September we reached the sophomore step. That year also held many good times. Our football team went to the Paper Bowl and made a very good showing. That summer the girls attended J. H. A. camp. Louise and Helen were elected class beauties for that year. The boys began to bring out of shop odd-looking objects which they swore were furniture.

Then came our junior year. We spent most of the year thinking of our first "own" junior-senior. The glee club made a 1+ rating and the band made 2+ in Rock Hill. Harold Folk, John Brown, Bobby Fulmer, Byron Richardson attended Boys' State. The election of Student Council officers for the next year was held. Ann Clark was elected president. Flash!

Emma and Bill won the history award. Margaret Harmon and Ann Clark were junior class beauties. George Lipscomb, Bubber Hutto, Bobby Mays, Gene Griffith, and Gloria Hawkins decided to attend college the next year. Chevis Boozer, Bennett Shealy, and Rudolph Ferguson joined the service and all of them were missed greatly. Our Stunt Night was a great success. The money was used for the expenses of the Junior-Senior. We were all deeply hurt by the tragic death of Vera Nunnery, our former classmate.

At last our climax was reached on August 31, 1953. We attended school for the first time as dignified seniors. Little did we realize the full and happy year ahead of us. Emma Minick was elected our very capable class president, and everyone agrees that a better one could never be found. Emma supervised the raising of money for our trip to Washington, and she was responsible for all of the other fine things the seniors sponsored. For the first time N. H. S. had a Ring Dance. There was a mighty proud looking bunch of seniors on the stage that night as we received our long awaited high school rings. We sold delicious cakes, had a Valentine Dance . . . Tommy Longshore was King of Hearts . . . had a sock dance for the ones who don't like to dance with shoes on. We also sold magazines and had a booth at the County Fair. The booth was also a first time for a senior class. We were very proud of the outcome. The Washington-bound seniors have done a grand job of working for their trip.

Nancy Stone edited our school paper and Betty Lee, our annual. Betty Lee was Miss Hi Miss . . . Emma was D. A. R. Representative . . . Shirley Cromer was the Voice of Democracy Winner. Joyce Pruitt was elected Homecoming Queen and Carol Ann Baxter, Frances Hayes, Louise Sessions, Ann Clark, Margaret Harmon were her attendants. Kay Dominick was president of the Beta Club . . . Mickey Rabin, our Mr. Senior . . . Lottie Boland flashed her "rock" . . . Ned Darby and Louise stepped out of Vogue as our best dressed seniors. Invitations were ordered and fitting for our caps and gowns helped keep us busy. The Junior-Senior was held in our honor this year. Final exams . . . the wonderful dream of receiving our diplomas. Six senior girls were nominated for class beauties. Their pictures were sent off to Rock Hudson to be judged.

Mick, Bill, John Brown were the lone male Beta Members . . . the last minute mad scramble before the big night.

As the time drew near for the Class of '54 to graduate; we all thought, "Surely we have now reached the peak of the stairs." We gazed ahead of us and still saw steps to climb. We had come a long way but we had only stepped on a wider staircase. It was wonderful, and we all have treasured memories for a lifetime. Motto of Class of '54; "And a good time was had by all."

made by Ned Hipp. Although I don't know very much about guns, I could tell this one was a "beaut." He had taken parts from an old gun and had made this one. The thing on the stock was very eye-catching. It looked as if it had been done with much precision and care. I was then shown a .22 pistol and a .38 Smith & Wesson made by George Higgins. The pistol was a work of art, but the holster was what caught my eye. It was out of fine leather and would have put many of the cowboys to shame.

I noticed William Smith over my shoulder and inquired what he was doing. It seems that he is making a pulley for a motor. I didn't exactly understand but nodded my head anyway. Bobby Lee Carver then came up to ask Mr. Phillips a question. He was carrying a strange looking thing in his hands. Being a little out of something, I asked him a few questions. He explained it to be a number of the art. I saw the shape and made him promise to show it to me when it is complete.

While I was standing there talking, I heard someone mention something about the midjet car Mr. Phillips is making. I questioned him about this and he took Pay Time—Now!

The Cordial subscription campaign for the second year started Monday. The business manager asked all the pupils to contribute. There will be five more issues of the Cordial this year under Editor Nancy Stone. One of these issues will be published by the junior class. The last issue will be the senior issue, marking the end of the school year of 1954.

On Friday, January 29, Mr. P. K. Harmon had the privilege of wheeling a barrow-load of Mr. J. V. Kneese. Donations moved them down Main Street and into the local city jail.

A $10 bond set for their release was topped, with $25 collected in all. A total of nearly $200 was netted from this phase of the Jaycee-sponsored March of Dimes campaign.

Allied Youth Hear Russ Culbertson

Mr. Russell Culbertson held the members of the Allied Youth completely spellbound as he gave an account of the past fourteen years of his life. He, a reformed man, related his story on February 1, the regular Allied Youth meeting.

He spoke casually and made the members feel as if he were conversing individually with every attentive student. Having been an alcoholic once himself, he discussed the disease with which he was acquainted, alcoholism.

His only remedy he said was his belief in God. Before, when he just began to drink, he only took for granted that there was a God; and now, after finding Him, he scarcely understood his unbelief.

Russ Culbertson, though he did not meet every member of Allied Youth, was accepted and loved as a dear friend. A dropped pin could have been heard throughout the entire monologue.

He pointed out the harms of alcohol and reasons teenagers drink. He admonished the pupils so that they might resist the temptation to "drink with the crowd."

Ruefully he looked upon his past, not as most men would do, but like one who used his misfortune as a beneficiary to those young people who might have been headed on the road of destruction. This was not the first time he had spoken to Newberry High School students, and definitely not the last.

The Wheels

Let's start this wheel rollin' with a wheel, O K? Well, most everybody already knows this girl and can tell you why she is a wheel. Her most important jobs are business manager of Cordial, art editor of the Oracle, and president of F. T. A. She's very smart and, like most brains, is a Beta member. The O. A. C. man in her life is Tom—but, as second choice, she'd like to date Rock Hudson. Her pet peeve is "a gente time dos carne"—(???) She also likes Spanish—noooo! If we haven't guessed the girl Frances Hayes.

Well, shut mah cotton pickin' mouth—and speaking of "cotton"—that's the nickname of my next personality, Edward Huff. "Cotton" can usually be seen in a white '49 Mercury, but he prefers his good ole "A" model any day. (He does?) He stands real short-like, 5'3", weighs 126 lbs., has blue eyes, blond hair, and thinks any kind of steak is lush. He likes to loaf in the shop on special days. His pals are J. W. Williams, etc. His ambition is to be a chemist elsewhere than in Newberry.

Well, well, here we have a girl who wants to be a V. Mary Thomason is planning to help Uncle Sam by way of the rear. Mary's pet peeve is slugs (mine, too!) and her pet name is "Red". July 3, 1933, marked the time that Mary entered "the world" and since then she has come a 17-year-old girl (no kidding). Besides reading "Blue" in the funnies, "Red" enjoys sipping on the phone and listening to "Ricochet". June, Mary, and Barbara are her best friends. Donald O'Connor, her movie idol.

Just look around for Letitia twanger and you'll find who's going to tell you about—not "though, John—John Brown, is it? Yep, John and "Tish" are like bugs in a rug. John, being a driver, himself, has, as special, the remaining drivers plus all "Tish's" friends. John is treasurer of the Senior Science Club and after grad wants to go to Clemson and Duke, and learn to become a doctor. John is 'bout as smart in all his subjects as any boy I know, and I'm sure he'll be a huge success as Dr. Brown.

If you are any type of basketball fan at all, I don't have to tell you the name of the star.

how would ya' like to go to school, study, and work in the mill at night. Well, that's exactly how busy Bobby Lee is. Haha, off to you!

I'm sure you've all been in Lomnick's Drugs to get a banana split before, and more than likely Caroline Cook made the best you've ever tasted. "Cookie" is a future homemaker, by the way, now that she's got the all important ring. Her ambition is to get a M.B.S. degree from (preferably) "Buck" Coakrell University. "Secret Love" by Doris Day is the tune broiled steak, the food. "Tip" Willie Mae! Eleanor, etc. The gang. For graduation she wants a watch more than anything else.

and Winkle are a steady couple once more. Hm, I'm inclined to wonder what happen' to that good lookin' Don Satterfield. Oh, well, I'm sure he'll have no trouble at all finding a new girl, right, females?

Huh? What's that ya' say? Noooo! Not "Puny"! eight new boyfriends? What happen' to well, what happen' Ann (who in the world is that???) has everyone guessing who the "number one" is; however, if I smell a rat, I'll let ya' know. (By the way, he goes to high school!)

Kay and Robert are back together again after a temporary misunderstanding.

That isn't your ring you have on, is it, Jack? Maybe it belongs to a certain ninth grader by the handle of Mary Ann Ray, wonder what "shut-up" the copulant study conversation between James Simmons and Elmer Mayer. Could be one Vernon Workman.

Gosh, a picture in the paper can sure start things, right, Janie Henderson? I hear the mail at your house is pretty heavy, too—hope they're not "Dear John's."

Did someone inquire about a very unsteady couple, that of Sarah B. and Joe? Oh, well, maybe it won't last long (???) Here, too, is some info right from the "vine" Garland agrees to be taken.

Practice Shots

Because of the loss of several outstanding players from last year's squad, the coaches and this year's team had a difficult season. To make matters worse Joe Miller broke his arm in the seventh game and was out for the rest of the season; Jerry Summer, Clive Hurt and Hugh Bickley and a few of the other boys had minor injuries. Of the eleven games played only three resulted in victory for the bulldogs.

 We've made it.
 I can't wait to see

Bill,
It's really hard to say in a few words how much
I have enjoyed coming
to know you this year.
Let me say that you are one of the very few exceptional people whose opinions and humor I've always enjoyed giving ear to. All the places and things we've been together in different groups won't be forgotten
either, since you leave
a definite impression.
In the future keep me
informed about your poetical production.

Best of Wishes always,
Mary Jo

I could add nothing
to what she has already said. I feel that she has spoken for both of us except longer and stronger.

P.S. I am sorry we didn't get together on some of the big deals.

"Willie"

Well, we finally
made it - I hope!
I sure have enjoyed
these past years having classes with you.

Don't forget the great times we've had - especially at the Beta convention.

I'm sure that if
you keep your sense of humor - (I?) you'll be a great success
in life.

"Pick"

Hi Joe (?),
Remember all the confused play practices
we participated in, not to mention our "good" short stories we composed.
Be Good!
Nancy (Otem)

I'm going to miss
you more than you think I do. I know
you'll be one big success.
All the love to a wonderful boy!

Best of luck.

Here's wishing the
